

Bridal dance a special moment

AFTER knowing each other for 15 years, Jodie Marie Herbert and Sebastian Raju Campbell were married at The Cut golf course in Port Bouvard on March 7.

The couple got together five years ago at the Wembley Hotel.

The daughter of Larry and Rhonda Herbert, Jodie looked stunning in a classic white gown with a low back and beading.

It was low cut at the front and had a minimal train.

The bridesmaids were Nicole Langford, Rebecca Bishop and Emma Davies.

Sebastian, the son of Greg and Lise Campbell, had Scott Phillips, James Majer and Clayton Aird as his groomsmen.

After having photographs taken around the course, the couple joined their 110 guests at The Cut for the reception.

The newlyweds agreed the celebrant did a great job of making everyone feel comfortable and enjoy themselves.

They said the photographs, speeches and the bridal dance were also memorable moments.

Jodie and Sebastian honeymooned in Thailand for three weeks.
